The Shrimad Bhagwat is one of the most sacred scriptures of the Vedic Tradition. In its entirety, it takes us through more than a thousand pages of wisdom recounting the various incarnations of Lord Vishnu and the glories of Shri Krishna. Written by Sage Ved Vyasa, the Shrimad Bhagwat provides the light which enables the individual to experience the freedom of self-liberation. The Bhagwat Katha is described as "Shoka Moha Bhayapaha," that which destroys attachment and consequently removes sorrow and fear.

Four Brajbasis from Barsana (SriRadha Rani's birth place) are returning to recite Shrimad Bhagwat katha in its original form along with melodious Bhajans. There is no demand from Brajbasis for the Katha, however, whatever congregation and/or the Temple offer them is used for Braj Dham Seva for Kunds Restorations, for Gau Seva, for School kids and to provide medicine and food to needy.
