Topic: Sita Darshan and Sundara Kandam

(Language: English with quotations from Tulsi Ramayan, Valmiki Ramayanam and Ramayan literature in other major languages).

The finding of Sita Devi in Ashok Van in Lankapuri by Sri Anjaneya is a part of Ramayana that every Indian grows up with. Sita Darshan and Sundara Kandam lead to the destruction of Adharma and re-establishing of Dharma once again. A well presented narration provides a heart warming experience since it reminds the listeners about the true purpose of human life.

Presenter: Srimathi Jaya Srinivasan is a retired employee of Indian Investment centre, Ministry of finance, Government of India. Being fluent in Sanskrit, Hindi, Telugu and Tamil and having a talent for music she found her new vocation intellectually and spiritually rewarding and hence early retirement from her profession. Her programs cover the many Epics including Triveni Ramayana, Valmiki, Kamban and Tulsi Das, Bhagavatham, Bharatam and the works of various saints and poets of ancient and modern India. Her chosen personal Deity being Sri Rama she is at her best in discourses based on Sri Rama. Jaya has rendered more than 3500 programs all over the world and has been awarded many accolades and honors for her valuable service. She is the Founder member of charitable organizations in India for helping women in need and education, health and welfare of physically and economically challenged people.
